

A River Boat Cruise on The Tyne - The Happy Cats

Written by marty craggs

Monday, 23 January 2012 11:46 - Last Updated Monday, 23 January 2012 12:18

Aye to be sure tis been many a long year since The Happy Cats set sail on The River Tyne! But now Tyne Idols have enlisted the band to join them on a River Boat Cruise, Saturday 2nd June Boarding at 7.00pm the river boat will be leaving Newcastle Quayside Pontoon next to the Pitcher and Piano at 7.30pm prompt! From Newcastle to North Shields Fish Quay you will be guided by Ray Laidlaw and Chris Phipps along the banks of The Tyne where you will find out about the colourful music and movie heritage associated with the river.

Once everyone has tucked into their square meal of Pie, Peas and Mash, (If you would prefer a veggie pie be sure to let us know) we turn around in the mouth of The Tyne and head for home with The Happy Cats on stage.

We have also arranged some very decent bar prices, a bottle of wine at only £7, beers and lagers for £2.50 and spirits at £1.50 a shot, "Break out the rum"!

For more information and to "BOOK ON LINE" click on:- <http://tyneidols.com/news.html>

Cheers Ship Mates! Marty 🍷